42. Elgin Daily Courier-News, 28 Oct 1936. "Honor Memory
Of Late Jurist
Picture of Shopen Given
Court; Hear Talks
The late Judge Frank E. Shopen's life as an Elgin resident and attorney and his 21-year career on the city court bench were eulogized yesterday afternoon at a memorial service conducted in the city courtroom by the Elgin Bar Assn.
Circuit Judge Frank W. Shepherd and Atty. Arthur L. Paulson were the principal speakers, and at the close of the service an enlarged photograph of the late jurist was presented the court by the association.
Attorney Paulson recalled that he had been associated with Judge Shopen for a third of a century, reading law in the late jurist's office beginning in 1903. He likened the judge to the late Attys. Robert Egan, Charles Fisher and Charles L.

Abbott, all of whom were characters, he said, because of their distinct individuality.

Loved His Work.

Mr. Paulson said that Judge Shopen "probably met more people during the business day than any lawyer in northern Illinois," while Judge Shepard commented that the judge "in his prime had more clients than any Elgin lawyer ever had." Both agreed that Judge Shopen's chief interests lay in his work; that his office was his work-shop and his club room. Attorney Paulson described how the late jurist twice ran against Judge Edward Mangan of Aurora for the city Court position which in 1907 and in the 1911 campaign found the one judge presiding over both the Elgin and Aurora city courts. In both instances Judge Mangan won, but in 1915, when the Elgin court was made a distinct and separate unit, Attorney Shopen was first elected judge. He continuously held that bench post until his death last September. Judge Shepard recalled that as an elevator boy in the old Home bank building he first met the then Attorney Shopen, who at that time was studying law with Robert M. Ireland.

"If I could criticize the judge's life," Judge Shepard remarked, "I would say that he worked too hard; that he took life too seriously. He had few social ties and showed a passion for his work as attorney and jurist.

"We can all learn from Judge Shopen's life that hard work breeds success," the circuit judge emphasized. "I think we are all agreed that among the qualifications of a good judge are that he shall be a seasoned lawyer, that he shall have judgment in the affairs of life, that he shall be a man of integrity, that he shall be free from outside influence, and that he shall be impartial and patient. Judge Shopen possessed a very measurable proportion of these qualifications."

Court Accepts Picture.

Both speakers agreed the late jurist was a kindly man, generous and fair. "There was a spiritual side to Judge Shopen's nature which was manifest both in his private and public life," Judge Shepard added.

The speakers were introduced by Atty. Charles D. Page after Judge Thomas J. Hoban had formally opened court. Mrs. Nellie Krieger, representing the auxiliary of the Sons of Union Veterans, presenting a framed, "Pledge of Allegiance to the flag: to the court in memory of Judge Shopen, who evinced a lifelong interest in the work of patriotic organizations. Presentation of the photograph of Judge Shopen was made by Atty. Elmer C. Tobin as president of the Elgin Bar Assn., and the court formally accepted the memorial in the signing of a legal order."

Judge Shopen,
Heart Victim, is near death
Slight Hope for Veteran
Jurist, Stricken At His Office.

Frank E. Shopen, judge of the city court of Elgin for the last 21 years, lay at the point of death this afternoon in Sherman hospital where he was taken after suffering a heart attack this morning in his offices in the Professional building.

Apparently in good health, Judge Shopen was taken ill shortly after reaching his office at 9 a. m. His nephew, Atty. Earl R. Shopen, and his associates in the law firm of Shopen & Paulson, Atty. Arthur L. Paulson, were with him at the time and summoned a physician.

In the hope that rest might prove beneficial, the judge was taken to the Union League club lounge, in the same building. He failed to rally, however, and at 11 was removed to Sherman hospital where a consultation of doctors was held.

Shock to His Many Friends

Shortly before noon the judge lapsed into unconsciousness and his condition rapidly became more critical.

Bench and bar associates of Judge Shopen, his countless number of friends, and members of his family were stunned at the news of his illness. He has been considered in normal health and was exceptionally well preserved for a man of his years. He observed his sixty-seventh birthday in July.

Three weeks ago the judge and Mrs. Shopen (Mary Pearson) returned from a vacation spent in the Michigan north woods, and just last night Judge Shopen made a social call to the new offices of lawyer friends in Aurora.

On Bench Since 1915.

He has been a member of the bar since 1895, and judge of the city court of Elgin for the last 21 1/2 years, having been first elected to the bench in February 1915. He has also been prominently identified with the Old Settlers Assn. of the Fox River Valley, having been president of the society for several years prior to his retirement from that office a few years ago. Judge Shopen is a lifetime resident of Kane county, having been born on a farm near Lily Lake, Campton township, in 1869.

For more than 40 years he has been identified with the civic life of the community a period during which he has been in demand as a speaker at patriotic functions.

The Shopen home is at 115 Hill ave.

The weekly session of the city court, scheduled for this afternoon, was adjourned until Monday."

Frank E. Shopen is dead.

The veteran Elgin civic leader, bar member, and jurist - he was judge of the city court for 21 years - died at 8:25 last night in Sherman hospital from the effects of a heart seizure suffered in his offices earlier in the day. He was in his sixty-eighth year.

Judge Shopen had enjoyed excellent health, considering his years and his unexpected passing proved to be a shock to members of his family, his associates of the bench and bar, and his legion of friends.

Funeral On Monday.

The funeral service will be held Monday afternoon at 3 from the First Congregational church, the Rev. Alexander Milmine, pastor of the church, and the Venerable Winfred Zeigler, archdeacon of the Episcopal diocese of Chicago and a formal Episcopal rector in this city, officiating. Burial will be in Bluff City cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be Atty. Charles D. Page, Atty. Elmer C. Tobin, Atty. Charles G. Seidel, J. Arthur Rovelstad, and Charles D. McArthur, all of Elgin, and State Rep. John M. Peffers of Aurora.

Honorary pallbearers are Judge William J. Fulton of Sycamore, Judge Frank W. Shepard, Judge Harry C. Daniels, Judge Walter R. O'Malley of Aurora, State's Atty. George D. Carbary, Henry L. Krumm, Carl Pariasca, Atty. John K. Newhall of Aurora, State Rep. Frank A. McCarthy, M.M. Cloudman and E. E. Micklewright.

The body will lie in state until the hour of the funeral service at the Norris mortuary where friends may call.

Native of Kane County.

Judge Shopen had lived a life of accomplishment and service to his fellowmen. Born on a farm, he forsook humbler tasks to win high ranking in the legal profession and he had been active over a span of 40 years in every conceivable type of worthy civic enterprise.

He was born July 24, 1869 near Lily Lake, in Campton township, son of Joseph Shopen and Hortense Tabitha Tucker Shopen. His father was born in Germany in 1840 and emigrated to this country as a young man. His mother was a native of Campton township, where she was born in 1851.

The judge came to Elgin as a youth, attended schools here, and entered the employ of the Elgin National Watch Co. While working at the "shop" he attended night school at Drew's Business college, and, ambitious to become a lawyer, entered the law office of Atty. Frank W. Joslyn, and later the office of the late Robert M. Ireland, with whom he also studied. He was admitted to the bar on June 15, 1894, associating himself with Mr. Ireland with offices in the old Home Banks building.

Elected Judge in 1915

Following Mr. Ireland's death in 1895, he continued in the practice of law in the same office until the building was razed to permit the erection of the present Elgin Tower in 1927. Since then he had maintained offices in the Professional building.

In 1908 Judge Shopen formed a law partnership with Arthur L. Paulson, which continued until February 1915 when he was first elected judge of the city court of Elgin, an office he held continuously until the time of his death. Mr. Paulson and Judge Shopen were office associates following his election as judge, and more recently Atty. Earl R. Shopen, a nephew of the judge, and Atty. W. B. Morgan had also been associated in the Shopen and Paulson offices.

Judge Shopen succeeded the late Edward M. Mangan as judge of the city court, the state law having been amended to permit cities the size of Elgin to establish courts of their own. Prior to that Aurora and Elgin had been considered a city court circuit, and because of its superior, [continue p. 15, column 1] voting strength Aurora had continuously named the presiding judge.

Serving fifth Term.

The late judge was serving his fifth consecutive term at the time of his death. The first four terms he served on the bench were of four years duration each, but in 1930 the law was amended fixing the term of city judges at six years.

Judge Shopen had confided to close friends that he did not plan to seek re-election next February when he completed his present term and 22 years on the bench. Members of the bar, however, were understood to be unanimous in the hope that he would continue his able services as a jurist in this community.

Meanwhile the city court has adjourned its sessions until next Friday, when a judge will be called to sit in the court temporarily until such time as a successor is appointed by the governor to fill out Judge Shopen's un-expired term. Under the law when a vacancy occurs less than a year from date of expiration of a judge's term, the governor is empowered to fill the office by appointment. Otherwise a special election is necessary.

Ability is Recognized.

Judge Shopen was widely known for his judicial ability, and was honored eight years ago by being named by justices of the Illinois supreme court to preside over a murder trial in Stark county. He had also served in Judge Brantano's court in Cook county, and sat upon the Aurora city court bench following the death of Judge Mangan and until the election of Judge Walter R. O'Malley.

The judge was a tireless worker, and it was only at the insistence of members of his family and friends that he agreed some weeks ago to take a vacation trip into northern Michigan.

Judge Shopen was married to Miss Gertrude Ludford of Elgin in 1898, and her death occurred in June 1903. On May 12, 1917 he was married to Miss Mary Pearson of the city, who survives him. There are no children of either marriage. Also surviving is a brother Joseph A. Shopen, a real estate broker residing in Omaha, Neb. He was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, Fred Shopen, who died in 1885, and John W. Shopen, who died in 1931.

Active in Civic Affairs.

The judge was a devoted patron of the Boy Scout movement. He had been a Scouter for 21 years, president of Elgin council. Boy Scouts of America, in 1916-17, vice-president of the council in 1920, chairman of the court of honor from 1918-32, and chairman of the trust and endowment committee from 1933 until his death. In 1931 he was presented the silver beaver emblem as a token of service to boyhood. He treasured the award highly, and will wear it to his grave. Judge Shopen was also identified with other community organizations. He had served on the advisory board of Salvation Army, was a member of the board of education from 1906 to 1915, was one of the organizers of the old Elgin Commercial club, forerunner of the Elgin Assn. of Commerce, and had been active in community chest work and in the ranks of the Young Men's Christian Assn.

He belonged to the Union League club, the Elgin Country club, the Elks, Eagles, various bar associations, and the Hamilton club of Chicago. He was a lifelong member of the Republican party."

Mrs. Gertrude Ludford Shopen, the wife of Attorney Frank E. Shopen, died at an early hour this morning at the family home on Chicago street after an illness of four days duration. The announcement of her sudden death will come as a surprise and a shock to her many friends who sympathize with her bereaved husband.

Carthiac paralysis and contracted diphtheria was the cause of her sudden demise. Last Saturday Mrs. Shopen developed a cold which later resulted in the contraction of diphtheria. Deceased was born in Coventry, England, twenty-four years ago (sic prob. ago). For the past fifteen years she has been a resident of this city receiving her education at St. Mary's academy where she was esteemed by both teachers and associates. On August 31, 1898, she was united in marriage to Attorney Frank E. Shopen and their married life of happiness was but begun when the young life wife was called away. A new residence, nearly ready for occupancy, was waiting Mr. and Mrs. Shopen on Hill avenue where they hoped to make a happy home.

Deceased was a member and an active worker in St. Mary's church, being especially prominent in charitable work. As an organizer and a prime mover in the establishment of the new St. Joseph's hospital her efforts were tireless. She was also a member of St. Mary's Social and Benevolent society and of the International Art club.

To mourn her loss are left a host of friends, her husband Attorney Frank E. Shopen, her parents Mr. and Mrs. William Ludford of this city, a brother Rev. W. R. Ludford of Dowie (sic -Douai), France; and a sister Miss Lillian Ludford, of Oberlin, Ohio.

The remains will be placed in the vault at the old cemetery tomorrow morning at which time short services will be held. Interment will be held at a later date upon the arrival of her brother Rev. W. R. Ludford, from France, who will conduct the funeral service."

Gertrude M. Shopen is buried near her husband and his second wife at the Bluff City Cemetery. She died of "Paralysis" or a stroke. They were living at 423 Chicago St., Elgin.

Eleven years later, Frank dedicated a memorial at the hospital in honor of Gertrude's work there.

The Elgin Daily News, Thursday, April 30, 1914

"As a fitting memorial to his dead wife, Frank E. Shopen has dedicated a room in the proposed addition to St. Joseph's hospital to be known as the Gertrude Ludford Shopen room.

Mrs. Shopen died eleven years ago. Mrs. Shopen was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ludford, 115 Hill avenue. At the time of her death she was still called a bride, having been married but a few years previous. Mrs. Shopen was a sacrificing worker of St. Joseph's hospital in its early day when that institution was in a struggling condition. Through her untiring efforts and that of her husband, Attorney Frank E. Shopen, the Franciscan sisters of the Mother House of Joliet were brought to Elgin and thus the present hospital started under the regime of the order now in charge.

In those days of St. Joseph's Mrs. Shopen was constantly at the side of the good sisters assisting them in every way.

Nothing was too much for her to undertake if the sisters and their work were to benefit by it. In rain and shine she trudged the streets of Elgin soliciting donations so the hospital might get its start and become a reality. Alone she collected $2,000 besides other numerous gifts for this new institution. It was hardly a year later when this noble young life was cut off in its bloom and Mrs. Shopen called to her reward at the tender age of twenty-four."

Factory Jobmaster Ill For Year and Half

John Wilson Shopen 50 years old, a jobmaster in the plate department of the Elgin National Watch company factory died last evening at 10 o'clock at his home 451 Washburne street, following an illness of one and one-half years.

Mr. Shopen was born in Campton, Ill., on December 31, 1881, and came to Elgin about 40 years ago, where he had since resided. He entered the employ of the watch company factory as a hall and errand boy for the reception room, on February 13, 1896. On August 31, 1896 he left the factory to return to school. Two years later, on February 28, 1898, Mr. Shopen re-entered the employ of the company, this time serving in the machine A department, where he served as office boy for a year.

On September 18, 1900 he began his duties as assistant jobmaster on the drilling job of the plate department, continuing in this capacity until May 1, 1929, at which time he was promoted to general jobmaster of the plate division, which position he held at the time of his death.

Mr. Shopen was a member of the Grace Methodist church.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two sons, Attorney Earl R. Shopen of Elgin and Kenneth G. Shopen, a teacher in the Chicago Latin School for Boys at Chicago, a daughter, Miss Doris Shopen, of Elgin; two brothers Judge Frank E. Shopen, of the Elgin city court, and Joseph A. Shopen of Omaha, Neb. His parents Joseph and Hortense Shopen, and a brother Fred, died many years ago.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from Gustafson chapel, with burial in Bluff City cemetery."

Last Monday Mrs. G. W. Hundley, of Spencer, Roane County committed suicide by hanging.

she was a daughter of Mr. Edwards, of Clendennin, to which place the remains will be taken for interment.

The cause of the sad affair is said to be owing to the fact that she and her husband, who is clerk of the county court of Roane County, had a disagreement a year ago last Christmas and have lived apart ever since. She became despondent and brooding over her troubles, it is thought, caused temporary insanity, which resulted in her ending her life."
